KANSAS STATE NEWS.

John Burns, an inmate of the Leavenworth soldiers' home, was killed by the cars while recently walking on the track near Rushville, Mo.

The alliance store at Bonner Springs, managed by W. Hahn, is in the hands of a receiver. The failure was caused by the disappearance of Hahn. He left a letter to his wife which led many to believe that he meditated suicide.

About midnight recently the express car on the Central Branch road was robbed while the messenger was assisting in switching the cars at Lenora. The safe was carried off and rifled of about $2,800. No clew to the robbers.

Ex-President McGrath, of the Farmers' Alliance, declares the published interview, in which he was quoted as saying that the alliance had fallen off in one year from 140,000 to less than 60,000 members, to be "unauthentic and false in fact."

One cottage and four six-room dwellings located at Fifteenth street and Stewart avenue, Kansas City, Kan., were burned to the ground at two o'clock the other morning under circumstances that led to the belief that a firebug did the work.

On the 14th of October W. C. Phipps and Theodore Gardner were convicted at Oswego of violating the Kansas trust law. Recently a motion was made for a new trial, but was overruled by the court, the judge fining each of them $100 and costs. They will take an appeal.

Topeka had the most serious fire on the night of the 25th that had visited that city for over a year. The fire burned two livery stables, a lumber yard and ex-Gov. Crawford's fire-story building. Thirteen horses perished in the fire and $10,000 worth of property was destroyed. Partially insured.

The Kansas world's fair board of managers have decided to incorporate at once. They have prepared an address to the people appealing for money. A. W. Smith, W. H. Smith and Col. A. S. Johnson have been appointed a committee to go to Chicago at once and select a site for the Kansas building.

A second attempt was made the other night to hold up the conductor of a street car at the terminus of the electric road on the Quindaro boulevard, Kansas City, Kan., but the conductor (Bassett) drew his pistol and commenced firing at the two masked men, when they beat a hasty retreat.

While two men were recently shooting craps in a livery stable at Hamlin, Brown county, one of them dropped a match into the hay, setting it on fire. The flames spread at once and the stable, ten head of horses and other property destroyed. The loss was heavy and insurance light.

While W. R. Sharp and wife were driving recently across the Santa Fe tracks at Pittsburg, they were struck by a switch engine, which destroyed the buggy and threw the old couple out. Mrs. Sharp was pitched on to the ends of the cross ties and her skull fractured, her right shoulder broken and other internal injuries inflicted.

MICHAEL WILKINS, one of the oldest and wealthiest farmers in the county, was killed by a Santa Fe train a mile west of Atchison the other afternoon. He and his wife had been trading in Atchison and in returning home attempted to drive across the railroad tracks when the wagon was struck by an engine. He was reported to be worth $75,000.

Fire at Lenexa the other night destroyed the large store building occupied by F. L. Swift & Co., dealers in general merchandise, with the entire contents, also Gillett's blacksmith shop and contents and a vacant building adjoining. Swift & Co.'s loss was $7,000 to $10,000, with $3,000 insurance. The loss to Gillett would reach $1,000 to $2,000, with no insurance.

The Farmers' Alliance completed the election of officers at Salina by selecting H. Bowman Burton insurance commissioner, to have charge of all business under the co-operative system. A judiciary committee was also elected. The resolutions adopted recommended the re-election of J. F. Willits as national alliance lecturer; advised liberal appropriations for making irrigation tests in western Kansas, and insisted that all necessary means be taken to preserve the purity of the ballot.

A gentleman who recently returned from the western part of the state to Atchison reported that "unthreshed wheat in that section is damaged from 25 to 50 per cent. on account of wet weather and poor stacking. The grain has already commenced to grow, and many of the stacks are green. A good deal of wheat still remains in the shock. This is ruined. Farmers are busily engaged in threshing the crops, but will not get through before the first of the year. The acreage of wheat put in this fall will not be as large as last fall."

Rudolph Muller, an old bachelor, was found dead in bed in his house at Wichita the other evening. It was supposed to be a case of suicide by poison. In the bed was found a note to the effect that the writer was old and unable longer to earn a living and he was better dead. A post mortem examination revealed arsenic in the stomach, but nothing could be found about the room which had contained arsenic. The note also bore evidence of being a forgery and there was strong suspicion that the old German had been murdered for money supposed to be secreted about the premises.

A citizen of Kansas City (Kan.) was awakened the other night and saw a man standing by his bedside. He called out to the intruder and the fellow walked deliberately out of the front door. A moment later he appeared at a side window and coolly bidding the citizen "good night" disappeared.

The Topeka sugar works have shut down and the proprietors are involved in considerable litigation. The farmers who had contracted with the lessees of the sugar works have employed an attorney to enter suit both for the cane already delivered to the mill and for that left standing in the field.

KANSAS MORTGAGES.

Another Document From the Census Office—A Rapid Increase Up to 1887 and a Rapid Decrease For the Next Two Years.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The census office has arrived at some more interesting conclusions respecting the mortgages on farms and homes in Kansas. The total number of mortgages recorded during the ten years was 630,049, of which 615,432, or 67.03 per cent. of the total, were on acres, and 204,427, or 32.97 per cent., were on lots. The yearly totals exhibit the fact that in 1880 the amount of recorded mortgages was $18,625,284; in 1881, $21,343,449; in 1882, $22,410,810; in 1883, $27,697,409; in 1884, $39,579,554; in 1885, $53,203,087; in 1886, $76,259,403; in 1887 the amount reached $97,520,069; declined to $69,877,822 in 1888, and to $56,083,244 in 1889. Mortgages to the number of 34,774 were recorded in 1880, 35,161 in 1881, 33,496 in 1882, 37,958 in 1883, 50,091 in 1884, 71,474 in 1885, 96,195 in 1886. In 1887 the highest number was reached, when 110,500 were recorded. In 1888 there was a decrease to 87,157, and in 1889 to 62,253. In 1870 the amount of mortgages recorded against acres in the state was $15,425,775; in 1881, $17,514,735; in 1882, $17,634,017; in 1883, $21,463,153; in 1884, $31,241,551; in 1885, $42,113,311; in 1886, $56,723,124, and the largest amount, $61,227,479, was in 1887, from which year the amount decreased to $44,565,279 in 1888 and to $35,006,542 in 1889. The number of mortgages recorded against lots began the period with $3,198,509 in 1880, increased to $3,242,500 in 1887 and fell to $21,073,702 in 1889. The number of mortgages recorded against lots and acres show the same rise and fall. During the ten years 53,768,190 acres were covered by mortgage, the increase being from 3,602,149 in 1880 to 8,691,343 in 1886, from which time there was a decline to 4,638,067 in 1889. The number of lots incumbered during the ten-year period was 530,865, and the annual tendency was from 17,031 in 1880, to 121,433 in 1887, after which the number fell to 74,918 in 1889. Acres and lots covered by mortgage, not stating the amount of debt, are included in these totals. The average mortgage during the ten years was $778.49; for acres, $825.91; for lots, $682.06. The average number of acres to a mortgage was 129.30; lots, 2.60, while the average of incurred indebtedness per acre created during the period of ten years was $6.39, and per lot $262.80.

There is a per capita existing debt of $165. In the following counties 27.88 per cent. of all the existing debt of the state is owed: Cowley, Dickinson, Reno, Sedgewick, Shawnee, Sumner and Wyandotte. These counties have 18.31 per cent. of the state's population. In Sedgewick county, containing Wichita, where real estate speculation was very active a few years ago, the debt is $16,583,053. This is a higher amount than is shown for any other county. Wyandotte county, containing Kansas City, adjoining Kansas City, Mo., is second, with $12,629,946, and Shawnee county, containing the capital of the state, stands third, with $11,993,000. In these counties, possessing 10.33 per cent. of the state's population, the existing debt is 17.49 per cent. of the total debt of the state.

In Decatur, Jefferson, Lincoln, Lyon and Pawnee counties special investigations were conducted. Decatur is an agricultural county, in the northwestern part of the state, where crops have failed for several years. Its population is 8,414. The debt of this county is $1,009,233, and the number of mortgages in force is 2,239; average debt in force per mortgage, $480. The debt of Jefferson county, in the northeastern part of the state, is $1,317,029, secured by 1,486 mortgages, with an average debt of $886 per mortgage. Its population is 16,620.

Lincoln county is near the middle of the state, and its residents are represented to have suffered through several crop failures. Its debt is $1,692,940; the number of mortgages in force is 2,234, and the average debt to a mortgage is $758. The mortgages in force in Lyon county, situated in the eastern part of the state, are securing a debt of $844,233, an average debt of $902 to a mortgage. The population is 23,106. In the western part of the state, Pawnee county, with a population of 5,248 owes $1,778,666 on 1,831 mortgages, the average debt to a mortgage being $962. The purchase of the mortgaged and other real estate, improvements and business, when not combined with other objects were the inducements for incurring 50.29 per cent. of the original amount of the existing mortgage debt in Decatur county, 80.25 per cent. in Jefferson county, 75 per cent. in Lincoln county, 73.17 per cent. in Lyon county and 18.61 per cent. in Pawnee county. A considerable portion of the debt was incurred for these objects in combination with other objects, and in such cases is inseparable from them. Farm and family expenses were a frequent object of indebtedness, but they are more or less combined with the object of real estate, of purchase, improvements, and with others.

Forest Fires in Arkansas. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 29.—Forest fires are raging in Monroe county, in many instances fields having been burned, and cotton gins, with their contents, have been consumed, involving great loss. No rain has fallen in two months, and the autumn leaves are making a distressing conflagration. The smoke from the forest fires is almost unendurable, which, with the excess of dust, makes the atmosphere suffocating.

Incendary Fires in Georgia. NEWMAN, Ga., Oct. 29.—The city has again been visited by fire. Last night T. W. Howell & Co.'s warehouse with 1,000 bales of cotton was destroyed. The wind was wild and for three hours the town seemed to be at the mercy of the elements. All the stores on the west side of the square were leveled of their contents and the Newman guards were put on duty. At 5 o'clock this morning another fire broke out in the warehouse of Russell, Gibson & Co. The combined loss was $200,000. Willy Argo, a desperate character, has been arrested for the incendiarism.

You can't believe some dealers always. They want to sell the medicine that pays them the largest profit. What you want to buy is the one that does you the most good.

Which one is it? Sometimes, it may be a matter of doubt. But, in the case of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, there's no room for doubt. It's a matter that can be proved.

With the facts before you, it's an insult to your intelligence to have something else offered as "just as good."

And here's the proof: Among all the medicines that claim to cure woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities, and diseases, the "Favorite Prescription" is the only one that's guaranteed.

If it doesn't do all that's claimed for it, if it doesn't give satisfaction in every case, you'll have your money back.

There's strength and vigor for every tired and feeble woman, health and a new life for every delicate and ailing woman—and if there's no help, there's no pay.
